

Craftsman at work

Stained-glass maker Phil Watkins prepares the center window at the renovated First Unitarian Church for its glass. The church, 1428 Lafayette St., was severely damaged in a December 1985 fire, and officials expect it to open in time for Easter services April 19. The design of the glass was his great-grandfather's, Watkins says.

KEN PAPAEO/Rocky Mountain News