

The Denver Post / Karl Gehring

CHURCH WINDOWS RECREATED

Phil Watkins prepares the moulding for the glass centerpiece during installation of stained glass panels at the First Unitarian Church at 1400 Lafayette St. on Thursday morning. Fire ravage the church and destroyed the original windows, which Watkins' great-grandfather designed in the 1890s. It took Watkins 2½ months to recreate the windows.